Talent Night 2025 – Rules & Guidelines

To ensure a joyful, respectful, and well-organized event, all participants are kindly requested to adhere to the following guidelines:

1. Program Content

- All performances must reflect Christian values or offer wholesome entertainment.
- Content must respect the dignity of all individuals and groups and must not be offensive or discriminatory toward any religion, community, culture, race, gender, or belief system.

2. Eligibility

- Only individuals or groups who have completed the registration form before the deadline will be permitted to participate.
- For events involving minors, an adult must complete the registration on their behalf.

3. Program Submission

- Program details must be submitted to the Talent Night Committee using the specified digital media format, which will be communicated to the registrants.
- For group performances, only one representative needs to complete the registration form for the entire group.
- All submissions require prior approval by the Talent Night Committee.

4. Performance Type

- Participants must specify the type of program they are presenting (e.g., Dance, Skit, Song, or other unique talent).

5. Group Participation

- Group performances are strongly encouraged and will be given preference in the final program lineup.

6. Time Limits

- Individual performances: Maximum of 3 minutes
- Group performances: Maximum of 7 minutes
(Note: Plan for flexibility—some programs may be allowed up to 5 or 10 minutes based on committee discretion.)

7. Selection Process

- All programs will be reviewed and approved by the Talent Night Committee.
- Approved programs will then be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

8. Committee Authority

- The Talent Night Committee reserves the right to:
 - Disqualify any program not in compliance with these guidelines
 - Adjust the duration or placement of any performance as necessary

9. Participation Limit

- Each participant may take part in a maximum of two performances. Acceptable combinations include:
 - One solo and one group performance
 - One solo performance only
 - Two group performances

10. Registration Deadline

- Last Date of Registration: August 31, 2025 by 12:00 PM (noon)
